what kind of organization are you censoring public opinion of doctors? You are a leftist bunch of fools that should be jailed for not allowing freedom of speech or opinion. You are supposed to be monitoring malpractice and instead are peddling your idea of values. They are not mine and if you want to enter into the values debate you are destined to lose. We do not want a bunch of leftist arrogant intolerant fools telling us what we should believe. Stick to doctoring because you aren't doing a real good job of that these days.
