

From: [REDACTED]
Sent: Monday, 30 March 2015 10:48 AM
To: medboardconsultation
Subject: Medical Procedures

Re 7 day cooling off period - this would be quite impractical for many rural patients who may have drive several hours . I can recall finding a suspicious pigmented lesion during a skin check during a remote clinic. I removed it there and then, it was a level 2 melanoma - I had a very grateful patient.

Also the 3 month cooling off for younger patients - I have removed a melanoma from a 14 year old.

Dr Sheilagh Cronin