Section 6: Privacy statement

The Australian Health Practitioner Regulation Agency (AHPRA) is collecting your personal information to assess your suitability for appointment. Your information will be stored in a secured database (the AHPRA database) and will only be accessed by authorised officers of AHPRA. AHPRA treats all personal information provided by an individual in relation to an application for appointment in accordance with the laws that apply to AHPRA, including the applicable provisions of the Privacy Act 1988 (Cth).

If you do not provide the required information, it may not be possible to process your application. National Board appointments are made by the Australian Health Workforce Ministerial Council (the Ministerial Council), which includes ministers responsible for health from the Commonwealth and each state and territory.

AHPRA may disclose your personal information:

- to members of the Ministerial Council and government departmental staff, and other persons engaged by AHPRA for the purpose of processing and assessing your application
- to other people (such as government agencies and health authorities) for information relevant to your application, such as identification, work history and immigration status
- to organisations that issued your qualifications in order to establish their accuracy (and these organisations may be overseas), and
- where this is required or permitted by law (e.g. where AHPRA has to publicly report on Board activities).

Should you wish to gain access to your personal information held by AHPRA please contact our Privacy Officer by writing to the Privacy Officer at the AHPRA office in your state or territory. AHPRA's Privacy Policy sets out how you may access your information, seek correction of it, how you may complain if your privacy is breached and how that complaint will be dealt with. AHPRA's Privacy Policy is available at: <http://www.ahpra.gov.au/About-AHPRA/Privacy.aspx>

When you provide us with information about other individuals, we rely on you to make them aware that such information will or may be provided to us as part of the application process.

Consent and declaration

I consent to the use of personal information in this form (including any sensitive information such as gender or ethnic origin) by AHPRA as part of administering this recruitment process.

I declare that:

- I have never been, nor am I currently insolvent, and
- I have not been disqualified from acting as a director or acting in the management of a company.

I grant permission for sharing personal information and for inquiries to be made to establish the accuracy of any of the information provided by me in this form and accompanying attachments and to determine my eligibility and suitability for appointment by the Ministerial Council. I understand that these inquiries will involve the disclosure of my information for these limited purposes. I understand that the AHPRA and other authorised persons may make these inquiries of any persons or organisations they consider appropriate to support the process for filling the vacancies for appointment by the Ministerial Council.

By signing this declaration, I acknowledge that I will be required to provide a completed private interests declaration and grant permission for the conduct of probity checks, which will consist of:

- an Australia-wide criminal history record check by CrimTrac
- a check of the Australian Securities and Investment Commission (ASIC) register of persons prohibited/disqualified by ASIC under the provisions of the Corporations Act 2001 (Cth), and
- a check of the Australian Financial Security Authority (AFSA) National Personal Insolvency Index which contains information about proceedings and administrations under the Bankruptcy Act 1966 (Cth).
