

From: David Curran
To: medboardconsultation
Subject: Public health medical practice
Date: Saturday, 18 August 2018 12:42:43 AM

The revising the code of conduct is bad code that needs to be rejected. It is a code that put doctors at serious risk in denying them freedom of speech and consequently we should at leave the existing code as is a the better option.

Yours faithfully,

David Curran