

From: Hurwood
To: medboardconsultation
Subject: Medical code of conduct
Date: Tuesday, 31 July 2018 9:15:46 AM

To the Board

Please think carefully about the full implications of proposed changes to the Code of Conduct.

To actually achieve good medical outcomes for patients, doctors have to be free to challenge difficult problems that patients might seek to avoid, such as “excess weight, excess alcohol, dangers of sexual behaviours – at the very least to tell medical truth.

I urge you to retain the current Code.

Regards

Helen Hurwood