

Decision-making bodies of the Psychology Board of Australia

Under section 36 of the National Law, National Boards can establish a State, Territory or Regional Board for a participating jurisdiction to enable the Board to exercise its functions in the jurisdiction in a way that provides an effective and timely local response to health practitioners and other persons in the jurisdiction.

National Boards also have the power to delegate decision-making functions.

Below is a list of the State and Regional Boards and National Committees that have been established by the Psychology Board of Australia (PsyBA) to exercise delegated decision-making functions:

State and Regional Boards

- ACT/Tas/Vic Regional Board of the PsyBA
- New South Wales Board of the PsyBA
- Queensland Board of the PsyBA
- NT/SA/WA Regional Board of the PsyBA

National Committees

- Immediate Action Committee
